MID-WEEK SPECIAL

NEWS - COMMENT - POSSIBILITIES

General Motors big two-hour music special on NBC, Sunday, Nov 17, 9-11pm EST, saluting the motor manufacturer's 50th anniversary, will be called General Motors Jubilee of American Music. The live color show will originate in both NY and LA and will involve the presentation of the top tunes of the past half-century, many sung and played by the people most closely connected with their fame.....On another musical front, The Spike Jones Show, originally due to expire with last night's show (Tue, 10:30-11pm) over CBS, has been renewed by Liggett & Myers Tobacco and will run through the summer in its current time spot. The replacement show, a re-run film series, was so firm that CBS had the release for the storyline for the July 23 show in the same press packet that announced the retention of the Jones program..... Patrice Munsel's half-hour musical variety show, starting over ABC Oct 18, Fridays, 8:30-9pm NYT, co-sponsored by the Buick and Frigidaire Divisions of General Motors, will concentrate on Broadway show and pop songs. The opera star has been assured that her new variety show will not hinder her appearances at the Metropolitan Opera (Helen Traubel's contract with the Met blew up when she insisted on singing in night clubs). The Patrice Munsel Show is packaged by M & S Productions (Munsel and her husband, Robert Schuler) and will be produced and directed by Clark Jones, with Charles Sanford as musical director. Hugh Martin (of Martin and Blane) will be arranger and choral director. Larry Gelbart will be chief writer for the show.....Lawrence Welk's Saturday and Monday evening ABC shows will be highlight kine repeats during the period from June 29 thru July 8 while the maestro vacations in Europe for 18 days with his wife. Live telecasts resume with his July 13 Saturday program.

NBC did a fast program re-shuffle, to enable it to bring its strongest summer programming to bear against CBS' The $64,000 Question on Tuesday evenings. Originally The Charles Farrell Show re-runs were to replace the second half-hour of the abdicating alternate live dramas that have been seen in the 9:30-10:30pm time, but NBC decided to switch the new Nat "King" Cole Show from its scheduled debut in the Monday, 10-10:30pm spot to Tuesday, and bring Ted Mack's Original Amateur Hour (ending its run on ABC) into the Monday evening spot. The tip-off on the power that NBC seems to be prepared to throw against CBS is that Cole will have Frankie Laine as his guest on the first show in the summer series on July 2. The Charles Farrell Show will replace The Adventures of Sir Lancelot, Mondays, 8-8:30pm EDT, which was supposed to be seen in re-run thru Sept 16, now the termination date for Farrell in the spot.....The sponsor conflict that stopped Charles Van Doren from appearing on NBC's new High-Low, which will replace the Ford Show for the summer on Thursdays, 9:30-10pm EDT, (Van Doren is scheduled for GM's Wide Wide World in the fall) didn't stop the Van Doren family. John Van Doren, brother of Charles; also a college instructor, teaching American history at Brandeis University; will make his TV debut as a panelist on the new Barry & Enright quiz on July 4, "with the approval and blessings of Charles," according to John.

ROSS REPORTS—TELEVISION INDEX, Service Subscription Rates: $110 per year (or $30 quarterly, minimum one year subscription). Additional or multiple subscriptions at lower rates. Service includes: Weekly reports on current television production, programs, advertisers, talent movements; unlimited telephone and mail information service; periodic reports on special aspects of television; semi-annual and annual industry surveys, and The Television Index card file.

The Eastman Kodak Co thru J. Walter Thompson Co will be alternate week sponsor of The Ed Sullivan Show beginning Oct 6, with the Mercury Division of the Ford Motor Co continuing as alternate week sponsor. Ford's Lincoln Division is bowing out as co-sponsor, reportedly because the program type and the increasing cost of sponsorship do not match future merchandising plans for the high-priced car.....It will be Tonight - Starring Jack Paar, starting July 29, Monday thru Friday, 11:15pm-1am EDT, over NBC. The show will be produced by Perry Cross, directed by Barry Shear, with Jack Douglas as the lone writer set thus far (Paar also creates his own material). NBC has already had to face an interesting station clearance problem with Tonight since Boston, Cleveland and Houston stations dropped the program, starting last Monday (24) and Indianapolis goes dark on it starting next week. The Boston (WBZ-TV) and Cleveland (KYW-TV) situations are part of the schism between NBC and Westinghouse Broadcasting, with the latter emphasizing local programming patterns for both its radio and TV stations. NBC's big problem is that Boston, Cleveland and Indianapolis are in the top-15 market group of the country and if too many of the elite stations blackout Tonight, it will be even tougher to sell net participations in the show.

From The Voice of Firestone to The Big Beat is the strange summer path being taken by Fred Heider and Cort Steen, ABC producer and director, respectively, starting July 12, Fridays, 10-10:30pm EDT. The new Alan Freed current pop music show will star recording artists from the best seller lists, backed by Alan Freed's own stage band, which includes Sam "The Man" Taylor and Al Sears among the instrumentalists. It's a transition program for Freed, with GAC seemingly masterminding the disc jockey m.c.'s switch from past emphasis on rock and roll to pop music with a beat. Freed will handle the casting out of General Artists, which put the package together..... On another side of the music trend, Midwestern Hayride will return to the network air on the ABC schedule (after longtime NBC summertime duty) on Saturdays, 7:30-8pm EDT, starting June 29, running thru July 20 in place of the truncated Famous Film Festival (the Billy Graham show was extended to run thru July 20). The country music-square dancing show will have Paul Dixon as m.c. and will originate from Dayton, Ohio, via WLWD.

CBS' hour-long Sunday series, The Seven Lively Arts, debuting next fall with John Houseman as exec producer, will have seven directors handling individual programs in the series: Franklin Schaffner, George Roy Hill, Sidney Lumet, Charles Dubin, Mel Ferber, Jack Smight and Robert Sharpe. They range in age from 26 (Sharpe) to 38 (Dubin) and all have had directorial experience with some of the top prestige programs in TV, mainly in the one-hour live drama field.....The two film units producing 20 of the filmed shows for NBC's one-hour Crisis suspense-mystery dramas, will draw their directors from a staff that will include John Brahm, Herschel Daugherty, Robert Florey, James Neilson, Robert Stevens, Robert Stevenson and Don Weis.... ....TCF-TV Productions, 20th Century-Fox subsid, has turned over 37 films shown on the CBS net on the 20th Century-Fox Hour during two season to NTA for distribution. The film firm also plans to produce 20 new shows for showing with a selected group of the old ones over the NTA Film Network, if sponsors go for the plan. Either way, NTA syndicates the CBS shows, which will have to be edited for new intro material.... .....Screen Actors Guild has completed arrangements with five major syndicator-distributors of TV film series for accurate information on the start of each re-run of every episode of TV series in syndication through the firms. The companies are CBS-TV Film Sales, California National Productions (NBC), ABC TV Film Syndication, MCA TV Films and Screen Gems.

STAFF WRITTEN SHOWS - JANUARY 1, 1956 THROUGH DECEMBER 31, 1956

Shows in this section were, for the most part, not open to free-lance writers, but were rather written by a staff or stable of the same writers. These writers may not have been assigned to the show for the entire period covered in this report, and may have contributed to only one or more programs. But they are grouped with the permanent writers who were assigned (or who lasted) for the entire period. For shows with a stable of rotating writers, that is, one writer per entire script or program, number of scripts contributed by each author is indicated in parentheses after the author's name (wherever information is available.)

Show titles are listed in alphabetical order according to the first word of title. Where title is proper name of show or star, program is listed according to the surname. For example, THE JACK BENNY SHOW is listed in the "B's". Station, day and time (in New York City) are as of December 31, or of last air date, if show went off before end of period. The symbol (*) before the show title indicates show was still on the air as of December 31, 1956.

NEWS - COMMENT - POSSIBILITIES

The Henry Jaffe Enterprises package of 16 one-hour fairy tale productions, with Shirley Temple as hostess and narrator, will debut over NBC on Sunday, Jan 12, 8-9pm NYT and will be televised approximately every two or three weeks thru the season in various evening time periods throughout the program schedule. The program production will be handled thru Jaffe's Coronet Productions, with William Phillipson as exec producer. The programs will be either live or film, with the latter produced with Screen Gems, Inc., in Hollywood. Co-sponsors of the 16 programs, all thru N. W. Ayer & Son, Inc., will be the Sealtest Ice Cream and Dairy Products Division of National Dairy Products Corp; John H. Breck, Inc., for its shampoo and Hill Brothers Coffee, Inc. The series will include two musical revues, one based on Mother Goose and the other on Aesop's Fables. Other classic properties planned as bases for individual programs are: "Hansel and Gretel," Gulliver's Travels," "Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves," "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow," "The Nightingale," "The Rose and the Ring," "The Land of Counterpane," "Beauty and the Beast," "Dick Whittington," "The Magic Fishbone," "The Emperor's Clothes," "The Prince Who Could Not Laugh," "Robinson Crusoe" and "Rumpelstiltskin."

Alan Beaumont, currently one of the directors of NBC's Home show has been named producer of the new Arlene Francis Show, debuting sometime "early in August," according to coy NBC announcements, after the Home program goes off the air.....In the same breath, NBC announced that Jan Murray's Treasure Hunt, formerly an evening show on ABC, will become a daytime, five-a-week show, starting Monday, August 12, 10:30-11am EDT. This means that Arlene Francis will be on the air, 10-10:30am EDT, starting the same day, which also means that Home will be off the air following its Aug 9 program. Murray's quiz show will follow the same format as the former evening version, with a choice of treasure chests by winning quiz contestants, with the further chance that they win something valuable, or something prosaically more valuable in a kitchen than in hand. Jantone, Inc., will package the Murray show, with Budd Granoff as producer and Phil Levens as director. All currently have the same duties with Murray's Dollar A Second, an NBC summer replacement show now on Saturdays, 9:30-10pm EDT.....Starting Aug 12, NBC will have five half-hour quizzes or aud participation shows in a row, Monday thru Friday, kicking off with Treasure Hunt at 10:30am, then following in order, The Price Is Right, 11-11:30am; Truth or Consequences, 11:30am-12noon; Tic-Tac-Dough, 12noon-12:30pm; and It Could Be You, 12:30-1pm EDT.

Jimmy Blaine will fill in for vacationing Randy Merriman as host on The Big Payoff, CBS, Monday thru Friday, 3-3:30pm EDT, for two weeks, starting July 15..... Suspicion is the new title for NBC's one-hour live and film mystery-suspense series formerly titled Crisis. It still debuts Monday, Sept 30, 10-11pm EDT. Max Ehrlich and Joseph Schrank have been named as adapters of two stories selected for the live shows from New York.

ROSS REPORTS—TELEVISION INDEX. Service Subscription Rates: $110 per year (or $30 quarterly, minimum one year subscription). Additional or multiple subscriptions at lower rates. Rex Harrison has been signed for the lead in "Crescendo," Paul Gregory's color musical which will be the premiere production for the Du Pont Show of the Month, on Sunday, Sept 29, 9-10:30pm EDT. The first program will originate in New York, rather than in Hollywood as originally scheduled. Harrison will portray an English visitor to this country who is given an introduction to American styles in music: in musical comedy, blues, western songs, religious marches, folk songs, Latin American rhythms and jazz. Richard Lewine is CBS exec producer for the Du Pont specials.....Kaiser Industries Corp. and Kaiser Aluminum & Chemical Corp. will sponsor Maverick, a new Warner Bros. one-hour Western film series, starring James Garner in the title role of Bret Maverick, "a fictional character who roamed the West in the late 19th Century." William T. Orr is exec producer for the series. (The nets are now so finger-crossed, self-conscious about the flood of programs about the West that ABC noted that Maverick "is the only Western on any network scheduled for Sunday night."). The program will have a major distinction in that it, and any others produced under Kaiser sponsorship by Warner Bros. for ABC net showing, will be the property of a new corporation held jointly by Kaiser Industries Corp., Warner Bros. and American Broadcasting-Paramount Theatres.

Note for crime-mystery-suspense series producers: Lineup, in three years of production for the CBS net show, has run 647 suspects thru the San Francisco police lineup in 145 films in solving: 57 homicides, 27 armed robberies, 17 narcotics cases, 14 burglaries, 12 grand theft, auto; 9 extortions, 3 kidnappings and 6 miscellaneous crimes. (One critical viewer of the program noted that the police cars never lack for parking space when they answer a call -- suggested realism be added with some double parking scenes in an emergency).....Harry Ackerman has been named exec producer of Gomalco's Wally and the Beaver (temporary title) film series for CBS. The films will be produced at Revue, rolling the first week in August. Ackerman is also producer of Revue's Uncle Bentley film series, starring John Forsythe, which will alternate with the Jack Benny Show in the fall over CBS.....William Russell and Chris Nyby are the alternating directors for CBS' one-hour Perry Mason film series now in production at TCF-TV for CBS. Ben Brady is producer, with Gail Patrick Jackson as exec producer.

The Eddie Fisher and George Gobel alternate star and guest star shows on Tuesdays over NBC, starting Sept 24, 8-9pm EDT, have finally been titled: The Show of George Gobel (starting Sept 24, alternate weeks) and The Show of Eddie Fisher (starting Oct 1, alternate weeks). Radio Corp of America and Whirlpool-Seeger Corp will sponsor the Gobel weeks and Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co will sponsor the Fisher starring weeks. The Gobel show (that title will have to go!) will be a Gomalco, Inc., production with Alan Handley as producer-director, while Ramrod Productions, Inc., will produce the Eddie Fisher show. The shows, with each star guesting on the other's show alternate weeks, will include comedy, variety and music from other guest performers.

Pinocchio, the one-hour original musical to be presented as a simulcast over NBC on Sunday, Oct 13, 6:30-7:30pm NYT, will be sponsored by Rexall Drug Co on both radio and TV, thru BBDO. Mickey Rooney will star in the title role, with Walter Slezak as Papa Geppetto, Fran Allison as the Blue-Haired Fairy Queen, Jerry Colonna as the Jolly Coachman and the Circus Master, Stubby Kaye as the Town Crier, Martyn Green as the Fox, Mata and Hari as the Marionettes and Sondra Lee as Papa Geppetto's cat and Matt Mattox as the cat who follows the sly fox. Alec Wilder is composing the score for Collodi's classic children's story.....Lever Bros will have a new half-hour series starting in the fall, during the first half-hour of the time now occupied by Lux Video Theatre, NBC, Thursdays, 10-11pm NYT. The half-hour being relinquished will be filled by a new drama anthology series of films starring Jane Wyman, with Hazel Bishop, Inc., as one of the alternate week sponsors. The Lever half-hour show could involve Gordon MacRae, Lux Video regular season host, who is under contract to the sponsor for another year.

NEWS - COMMENT - POSSIBILITIES

The Seven Lively Arts, CBS one-hour Sunday afternoon program series starting this fall, will have an 11-man production staff, including exec producer John Houseman. Robert Herridge will produce up to one-half of the series' programs, which will deal with the entertainment world from every angle. Jud Kinberg, an associate movie producer for Houseman at M-G-M and previously an agency TV film production man, is also a producer of some of the programs. Robert Northshield is exec producer of the project's film unit, which includes writer-director Robert Sharpe, writer Andy Rooney and film editor Peter Poore. Other production associates under Houseman are Jack McGiffert, Charles Schultz, Robert Goldman and Joe Hurley. (CBS insists on emphasizing the ages of the men on the staffs of its new fall public service and public affairs programs. The Seven Lively Arts production people range from Robert Goldman's 25 to Jack McGiffert's 41 years).....NBC has further revealed, although not yet firmed up, the elements of its new Arlene Francis Show, debuting Aug 12, Monday thru Friday, 10-10:30am EDT. It will be a variety show, with Miss Francis serving as hostess. The program content will revolve about the people, places and things which most interest Miss Francis -- ranging from entertainment personalities to books, from authors to adventurers. Some program elements may also include audience participation. Alan Beaumont will produce, as previously announced, and the program will be directed by Ted Nathanson. The Norman Paris Trio will provide the music. Studio set for the show will be 3A in the RCA Bldg.....Max Factor & Co thru Anderson-McConnell Advertising(LA) becomes alternate week sponsor of Masquerade Party, effective tonight (10) and continuing thru Sept 4. Associated Products, Inc., is the alternate sponsor of the NBC program, Wed, 8-8:30pm EDT.

Westinghouse station KYW-TV in Cleveland has been doing a bit of crowing about absence of complaints from the viewing public, following its decision to drop NBC's live Tonight! program from its schedules and present feature films instead. (WBZ-TV in Boston, also a Westinghouse unit, followed the same procedure as KYW, putting thru the change on June 24). KYW-TV reports that after the first week, complaints to the station totaled only 12 letters and several cards. The biggest job of eating crow came from local newspaper radio-TV editors, who admitted that they had few protests after anticipating that viewers "would rise up and demand that Tonight be returned." The three newspaper radio-TV editors in Cleveland reported a combined total of five letters and two phone calls of protest against the station's action.

Walt Framer's new five-a-week audience and home participation show for ABC fall afternoon viewing, Lady Luck, will debut on the net Sept 30, Mon thru Fri, 4:30-5pm EDT. Keefe Brasselle will m.c. and star on the program, which will present contestants chosen because of an unusual lucky event in their lives, competing with one another for prizes. ABC, by the way, has no evening quiz or audience participation shows scheduled for its fall line-up.

Hollywood trade writers are boasting that 85 per cent of important TV programming will be produced in Hollywood during the next season, yet the majority also decry the apparent mediocrity of the announced program series in the sameness of their approach. Hollywood critics are also no different than others throughout the country in that they devote more news and critique space to live drama shows, no matter where they originate from, than they do for filmed programs. Few of the newsman-critics, at one time or another, have not wished for the "live" spark in film stories, although they know that any substantial swing back to live production can only hurt the burgeoning Hollywood economy. The biggest question on the TV horizon is: If a large group of Western series flounders next season, what type of programming will rush into the breach? Since TV has almost exhausted possible "trends" it can only revert to previously tested types of programming -- a smattering of anthology series, private eye productions or some newer types of wild-eyed adventure films, such as variations on the old science-fiction series. The current cry from cross-fingered ad agency execs seems to be, show me something new, unique, not-too-expensive but good -- in other words, a happy golden mean for TV.

Dennis O'Keefe will be the host for both the live and film programs on Suspicion over NBC, Mondays, 10-11pm EDT, starting Sept 30.....Neil Simon and Irvin Graham have been signed as co-writers for ABC's The Guy Mitchell Show, starting Sept 21, Saturdays, 10-10:30pm EDT.....In case anyone has wondered what the dependable situation comedy writers for TV are doing these days, many of them have been assigned to do scripts for the Eve Arden Show (formerly, It Gives Me Great Pleasure). The CBS film series, starting this fall, Tuesdays, 8:30-9pm NYT, goes into production on July 23 at Desilu, with Edmund Hartmann producing and John Rich as director. The 15 writers who will work on scripts are: Hugh Wedlock, Howard Snyder, Everett Greenbaum, Marty Ragaway, Jack Douglas, Marvin Fisher, Joe Quillan, William Cowley, Peggy Chantler, William Davenport, Jim Fritzell, Sherman Marks, Leo Townsend, Seaman Jacobs and Sy Rose.

In addition to its spreading network sponsorship pattern, Max Factor & Co is adding to its spot schedule with "special situation" sponsorships, the biggest of which is this week's Miss Universe Beauty Pageant in Long Beach, Calif. The company will sponsor KTTV(LA)'s entire live coverage of the event, including nine telecasts on eight different days totalling more than 10 hours. The coverage is scheduled to begin Thursday morning, July 11, at approximately 10am PDT, when the contestants will arrive in Long Beach, airline weather permitting. There will be a one-hour luncheon telecast on Friday, 12:30-1:30pm; opening ceremonies Saturday, 10-11pm; the parade telecast on Sunday, 2:30-4:30pm, and then starting Tuesday, July 16, nightly telecasts of the activities running thru the final night's judging on Friday.

When West Coast movie producers run out of police enforcement agencies for West Coast cities and states (Los Angeles, San Francisco, California Highway Patrol, Cochise County, Nevada State Troopers) and Southern areas (Texas and New Orleans), someone may discover a ready-made pattern that covers the entire East Coast of the U. S. U. S. One runs from the northern tip of Maine to Key West, Florida, and over its vast route it covers every conceivable type of highway and is policed by every type of state and local law enforcement agency. The storied route presents almost any adventure-police angle a producer could want -- and just imagine the joy of an agency able to couple its sponsor's claims with the title of the show -- U. S. Number One.

NEWS - COMMENT - POSSIBILITIES

"Pat" Weaver has been signed by Kaiser Industries as coordinator for all Kaiser television activities between Kaiser, Young & Rubicam, Inc., and the ABC net. Although Kaiser's committed TV activity is for Warner Bros.' Maverick over ABC-TV beginning in the fall, the Weaver appointment presages the use of additional properties, either film or live, during the coming season.....The American Theatre Wing-NBC-Henry Jaffe projects for the fall have switched title from Command Performance to Command Appearance and the first of the specials will be colorcast over NBC on Sept 19, Thursday, 10-11pm NYT. The Texas Company (Texaco is part of the program title) thru Cunningham & Walsh, Inc., will sponsor the show, which will be produced by Jaffe's Coronet Productions with the American Theater Wing. The program is listed as the first of a group of one-hour special programs spotlighting "one of the world's all-time great performers" and starring top names and personalities associated with the performer's career. The star is still anonymous.....ABC has already announced that an eastern rodeo program called Cowtown, U. S. A., featuring top rodeo performers in contests from "Cowtown, N. J." will debut on the net on July 27, Saturdays, 8-9pm EDT, in the spot currently filled by telecasts of Billy Graham's New York Crusade. It's just an announcement at this stage, with details still to come..... Frank Parker bowed out as co-host of Bride and Groom after just two weeks because he was uncomfortable on the show. It fitted neither his talents nor his personality and vice versa. Byron Palmer is the replacement. He's best known as the lead singer and narrator of a filmed series, This Is Your Music, shown regionally on the coast three years ago and since then in general syndication around the country. He's also a movie actor.

That Don Whitehead scripting chore for CBS for this fall will be a one-hour one-shot based on the FBI. It has no connection with television rights for his book, "The FBI Story," and according to Mr. Whitehead, "one show does not make a series... and this one-hour is not even possibly the forerunner of a series.".....The network rates being quoted by Pat Weaver's Program Services, Inc., for its fall series of live programs out of New York and Chicago are considered by some agency people to be unbelievably low -- at the point where it will permit participations by regional sponsors too small for big time TV and with budgets too limited for syndicated film sponsorships in their market areas.....The Bob Hope Show has turned around two of its Sunday and Thursday dates for next spring: from Sunday, Feb 2, 9-10pm EST, to Thursday, Feb 6, 8:30-9:30pm EST; and from Thursday, March 6, 8:30-9:30pm EST, to Sunday, March 2, 9-10pm EST.....Dennis James winds up 24 weeks as m.c. of NBC's Club 60 in Chicago on August 16 and will return to New York. A new m.c. will take over on Aug 19 (with the program at least tentatively scheduled to continue through September).....Britt Lomond will play the heavy, opposite hero Guy Williams in the Disney-ABC film series, Zorro.

The Film Producers Assn of New York is meeting with Mayor Wagner in hopes of lining up an official position that would help NY commercial and industrial film producers in maintaining a position competitive with West Coast producers who are raiding accounts that formerly contracted for New York film production. While the producers believe that some agencies face eventual disillusionment, in dealings with the major film studios that have moved into commercial and industrial film production, the wait for the end of the honeymoon could put the big squeeze on small firms. The commercials firms best set up to ride out the business switch are some of the animation studios, but mainly those on the coast, since the majors have discovered that they can't always employ their animation studios economically for commercials. In the East, the animation specialists who have depended on sub-contracting have already cut down to skeleton staffs. In any contest between majors and independents, the small guys always seem to survive, but there are never as many after the battle.

Arthur Godfrey will have a busy traveling schedule for three weeks, starting July 20. His morning show and the Monday evening Talent Scouts will originate from San Diego during the weeks, July 22-26 and July 29-Aug 2. During the interval weekend he'll be in Hollywood recording enough programs for the Talent Scouts to carry through his vacation period of Aug 9-Sept 16. But before the leave starts, Godfrey will fly up to Seattle to originate his programs from there during the week August 5-9, after which he goes on vacation and his troupe returns to New York, with Peter Lind Hayes moving in as m.c. The Godfrey shows will also originate from San Francisco during a week in autumn after the star returns.

The "Chicago school" of bowling and golf programs for television goes network on Oct 12 when Peter De Met's new series, All-Star Golf, debuts over the ABC net, to be sponsored by Miller Brewing Co thru Matthisson & Associates on alternate weeks and by the Wildroot Co., Inc., thru BBDO for half the program on alternate weeks. De Met is the Chicago auto dealer who sponsored a bowling show in Chicago and got to like it so much he set up a production organization for his show, then branched out into golf. The competition in Chicago is between De Met and Matt Niesen, who is a bowling proprietor and has the inside track at WNBQ (NBC) for his shows. In any case, the new De Met series will be special films of 18-hole match play between two leading pro golfers each week, the winners remaining on the program until defeated, meeting a different challenger each week -- the same format as used in the Chicago and syndicated film bowling series. Jim Britt will be the commentator for the 26-match series. The program will be seen Saturdays, 4-5pm NYT, starting Oct 12.

The NTA-Desilu Productions Official Detective series for syndication goes into production within two weeks, with 27 markets committed thus far. Mort Briskin will produce, with Lee Sholem directing.....Ziv's Harbor Command, starring Wendell Corey, police-adventure series centered around West Coast port activities, has 83 markets set for its fall debut.....Casey Jones, the period railroading series being produced by Screen Gems in partnership with KTTV, WPIX and Westinghouse Broadcasting, has been sold to 25 other stations thus far. The series is being filmed at Sonora, Calif, starring Alan Hale in the title role. (As a side note, Casey Jones' fireman on his last ride on April 29, 1900, died last Saturday in Memphis at the age of 83. He was Simeon T. Webb. The film series will have no relation to either history or the song-legend, aside from being about railroading).....Lyle Bettger will play the lead role of Sam Larsen, "chief investigator" for the Court of Last Resort, CBS net film series starting Oct 4, Fridays, 8-8:30pm NYT. The role is a counterpart of the real-life investigator who gathers and sifts evidence for the "Court."

Talent Associates will produce "The Prince and the Pauper," the first of six shows by the firm, as the second in the Du Pont Show of the Month series over CBS. It will be presented Oct 28, Monday, 9:30-11pm NYT, with David Susskind as producer and Michael Abbott as associate producer. The Mark Twain story has been adapted by Leslie Slote.
